

International Workshop Between Secularity and Religion: Shamanic and Buddhist Practices in Mongolia - Past and Present

25 November 2016 2:00pm~
Venue: Room No.A1-302, The University of Shiga Prefecture

• OPENING ADDRESS (14:00-)

Keichi Ohta (President of the University of Shiga Prefecture)

• KEYNOTE SPEECH (14:10-14:30)

Birtalan, Ágnes (Eötvös Loránd University, Hungary, the President of International Association for Mongol Studies)
Yellow Shamans in Mongolia

• PRESENTATIONS (14:30-17:00)

1. David Somfai Kara (Hungarian Academy of Sciences)

In the wake of VILMOS DIÓSZEGI: Problems of Shamanism in Mongolia in the 1960s and Nowadays

2. Cho Fuyo (National Museum of Ethnology)

A Comparative study of the healing rituals between Khorchin shamans and Barga shamans in East part of Inner Mongolia

3. G. Byambaragchaa (Mongolian Academy of Sciences)

Sacralization of an Archaeological Site:
Shamanism and mining development around the Noyon uul in Mongolia

4. Rie Maeno (University of Tokyo)

The Political Role of the Second Jalkhanz and Buddhism of the Right Wing Khalkha in the Seventeenth Century

5. Jiro Tanase (The University of Shiga Prefecture)

Labrang Monastery and its Lamas

• COMMENT (17:00-17:15)

Shen Weirong (Renmin University of China)

• DISCUSSION (17:15-17:45)

• CLOSING ADDRESS (17:45-50)

Ippei Shimamura (The University of Shiga Prefecture)

• RECEPTION (18:00-20:00)

Venue: Cafeteria at USP

<Contact>

Ippei Shimamura

(The University of Shiga Prefecture)

Tel: 0749-28-8405

E-mail: ishimamura@shc.usp.ac.jp